Special point of interest:

You can now listen to KLRF on your smartphone wherever you go. Just go to the internet on your phone and type in “klrf.org” and click on “Listen Live.” You don’t have to be tied to your computer to listen when you’re away from your radio.

In 2014, you requested your favorite “Top 14 in 2014” songs to be aired in a special broadcast. It was a resounding success and many of you have asked to do it again.

So this year you may cast your vote for the “KLRF Top 17 in 2017” songs by submitting your three favorite faith-based songs. In the past the favorites chosen were an eclectic collection of inspirational pieces ranging from contemporary melodies to classical compositions to traditional hymns to musically-inspired Scripture verses to majestic choruses.

From your selections, we will choose the top 17 requested songs and air them as a special program in December, 2017. We’ll make announcements in this In Tune newsletter and on air as to the date(s) of the broadcast.

We eagerly await your responses. Please write your favorite(s) in the spaces provided below, and send the form in the enclosed envelope or email us at 2017@KLRF.org.

Feel free to copy the form below: 1) for others who might like to participate and do not receive this newsletter; or 2) if you want to keep the recipe on Page 2 of this newsletter.

Four Volunteers Embrace the Heart of Radio Ministry

KLRF Still Needs Office Help to Share the Message

Pastor Owen Bandy, General Manager, KLRF 88.5

We prayed—the Lord answered, as He always does! We are honored to feature three new volunteers and one returning volunteer to the KLRF ministry.

Les Leno is our new Treasurer. He has extensive experience in business management and working with nonprofits.

Karen Mason, MD, joins the board, bringing medical expertise to the health ministry aspect of the station.

Karen's husband, Jim Mason, MD, and Dottie Curameng (right-hand column) join the music committee, bringing their appreciation and discernment for fine Christian music. Dottie was previously the very capable and talented editor of the KLRF newsletter.

Do you feel the Lord nudging you to donate some time? If so, leave us a message at 509-524-0885. You would make our day!

Featured Recipe

Broccoli-Cabbage Salad

4 cups broccoli, chopped
 4 cups cabbage, chopped
 1 small red onion
 1/2 - 3/4 cup apple, diced
 1/2 - 3/4 cup cranberries (could use more)
 1/2 - 3/4 cup carrot, grated
 Walnuts or slivered almonds, (added just before serving)

Dressing:

1 cup mayonnaise or Veganniase
 1/2 lemon, juiced
 Honey, sugar or stevia (to sweeten)

This salad is even better made a day before you need it. Increasing the amount of dressing will enhance the flavors. Makes about 12 servings.

The Corner Where Savvy Donors Stay in the KLRF Loop

Online broadcasting is HERE! In the last newsletter we promised you live streaming would start by May. With your financial help, it is now happening.

If you want to listen online, put “klrf.org” in your internet browser and click on “search.” When you find the KLRF homepage, you will see a place that says “Listen Live.” Click on that and you will be connected to KLRF anytime, anywhere. You can even do this on your cell phone.

Other radio stations can broadcast through this link, too, if they contact us for details. You have the amazing power now, through your donations, to spread the message of Jesus Christ around the world.

Thank you ever so much for your donations for the antenna fix. The antenna is now fitted with a heater to keep ice from forming next winter. It also has new lights, an additional $10,000 requirement of the FCC. You have blessed us by supporting this ministry, even the extreme equipment needs. Your generosity is inspiring. Thank you!!!

Dave Wolkwitz, our recent Treasurer and former Manager moved to Arizona, the land of endless sunshine. Though we already miss him, we shout a huge “Thank you” for his tireless dedication to this ministry. Dave, we wish you God’s richest blessings in your new venture.

The Lord Plans to Prosper You

Inspirational thoughts by General Manager Owen Bandy

Every morning while I’m talking to our Heavenly Father, I have several Bible promises in mind that I regularly hold up to Him, asking Him, in Jesus name, to remember that He has promised these things to us.

I ask Him to make good on these promises, not just so I can receive things or change circumstances, but that His name might be glorified in my life.

One of these promises is found in Jeremiah 29:11; I’m sure you know it. It says, “For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

What would we do without hope for a future?

And I claim this promise for you, a faithful listener of KLRF. I invite you to pray with me on a daily basis for your ministry here at KLRF. Your part in KLRF brings hope and a future to others who need the love of God around the world. May you be comforted knowing that God has a hope and a future for you.

Your Time

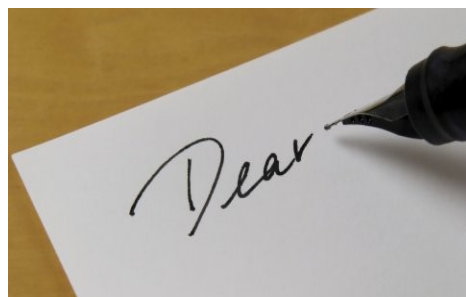

Your comments and suggestions are indispensable —keep 'em coming!

“I enjoy your music the most [of any station]. I was thrilled to see you are streaming online now! We are far enough away it is not easy to get your signal on our house radio. What a blessing and comfort is the choice of music you have for us! Thank you, Sincerely, Rebekah”

“God Bless You! (You sure bless me...)”—Alice

“I was happy to get your newsletter. I no longer get KRLF as I now live in Harrison, ID; but I want others to be able to enjoy the wonderful Christian music. When I drive to Walla Walla I am always happy when I get to Ritzville, WA, as I can pick up KRFL again and listen. God bless this ministry”—Mary
